

58 - CENTRAL METHODIST CHURCH,
WOODWARD AT GRAND CIRCUS PARK,
DETROIT, MICHIGAN

Central Methodist Church, Detroit, is the oldest Protestant organization in Michigan, established by special territorial charter signed by Governor A. B. Woodward. The present edifice was erected during Civil War days. President Ulysses S. Grant was one of the worshippers. The building is one of the finest samples of American Gothic architecture.

754
12889N

POST CARD

Dear Mother Arrived safe
and having a fine
time we went to see Lawson but he was not in we will be home Monday I am
Paul & Catherine

UNITED NEWS CO., DETROIT, MICH.

mrs N E Montgomery
R. 3. Bedford R. H.
Cumberland Md.